

The image shows a template for an A6 landscape format. It features a large green rectangular area in the center, which is the main content space. This green area is bordered by a thin blue line. Above and below the green area are white rectangular sections. The top white section has a pink trapezoidal shape at its top edge, and the bottom white section has a pink trapezoidal shape at its bottom edge. The text 'A6 Liggende format' and '148 x 105 mm' is centered in the green area in a white, sans-serif font.
